

WCPE Honors Women's Equality Day

WCPE's Music Director William Woltz announces a celebration of Women's Equality Day, August 26, 2013.

Wake Forest, NC (PRWEB) August 19, 2013 -- TheClassicalStation.org Features Classical Females

WCPE's Music Director William Woltz announces a celebration of Women's Equality Day, August 26, 2013. The event honors female composers, conductors and performers commemorating the passage of the 19th Amendment giving women the right to vote.

"We will hear from Clara Schumann and Fanny Mendelssohn," says Woltz who is also co-host of Allegro. "Jennifer Higdon, Joan Tower and other composers who are shaping today's Classical landscape will be featured."

Here is a partial list of the day's celebration:

9:00 a.m. Schumann, C.: Piano Concerto in A Minor
2:00 p.m. Mendelssohn-Hensel: Sonata movement in E
3:00 p.m. Beach: Symphony in E Minor (Gaelic)
6:00 p.m. Smyth: Overture from The Wreckers
10:00 p.m. Higdon: "Legacy"

"This is a great opportunity to feature women in Classical music," he continues.

WCPE's 24/7 live broadcast of Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day can be accessed around the globe in several ways; on-line streaming in multiple formats, including IPv6, small dish home satellite reception, local cable television systems and traditional radio broadcasting. About WCPE:

With a 35 plus year history, WCPE 89.7 FM is a non-commercial, 100 percent listener-supported, independent station dedicated to excellence in Great Classical Music broadcasting. Community-minded business underwriters and foundations are among the 150,000 listeners in the North Carolina broadcast area. General Manager Deborah S. Proctor's leadership has enabled the WCPE community to include national and worldwide listeners. Big and small dish home satellite transmissions serve North America. Other radio stations and cable television systems use these services to rebroadcast Great Classical Music, 24 Hours A Day. WCPE is one of the first public broadcasters to stream on the Internet. WCPE is heard worldwide on the Internet in multiple formats, including the next generation IPv6. Because WCPE receives no tax-derived support, the station conducts two on-air fundraising campaigns and two major mail-out campaigns per year to raise needed operating funds.
